But despite my sinfulness, You have said "There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus" (Romans 8.1).

Given my acute awareness of my sin, that's an incredible statement. How can I be without condemnation when I've so flagrantly and willfully sinned against You today?

O Father, I know it's because Jesus bore those sins in His body on the cross. He suffered the punishment I deserve, so I might experience the blessings He deserved. So I come to You, dear Father, In Jesus' name. - Jerry Bridges
