

The _____ of the Incarnation

In _____ (1.14)

Not a _____ or Christophany

Dwelt among us: Comparisons between Christ and the Tabernacle

The tabernacle was _____

The Tabernacle was outwardly _____

The Tabernacle was God's _____

The Tabernacle was where _____

The Tabernacle was the center of Israel's _____ (Num 2.17)

the word doxa means _____

notice the activities, attributes and graces in Christ's life that are said to be His and the Father's glory:

The power & grace manifested in the _____ (2.11)

The power manifested in the _____ (11.4, 40)

The power manifested in the _____ (Rom 6.4)

The power manifested in His _____ (1Pet 1.21)

His appearance on the _____ (2Pet 1.17)

His eternal _____ (Rom 1.20)

His attributes and perfect _____ (Rom 3.23)

God's glory is the essentially His _____. Sin is “missing the mark”, “falling short of the glory of God”, failing to measure up to Christ's perfection. Sin is violating the attributes and character of God.

God is holy

God is omnipresent

God is omnipotent

God is merciful

God is longsuffering

God is sovereign

“Witness” is the Greek word martureo

The _____ of the Incarnation

To reveal the _____ of God (1.18)

To reveal the _____ of God (1.14-17)

To reveal the _____ of God (1.14)

the awful consequences of sin

God's hatred of sin

the consequences if we refuse the Substitute